About Budapest

Budapest, one of the most beautiful historical capitals in Europe, is situated on the banks of the Danube. The Hungarian capital actually includes three cities: Óbuda, the oldest section, with Celtic and Roman ruins, Buda on hills on the western bank, famous for its historic Castle Hill and beautiful residential area, and the bustling Pest with its shopping, governmental and commercial districts on the flat plain of the eastern bank.

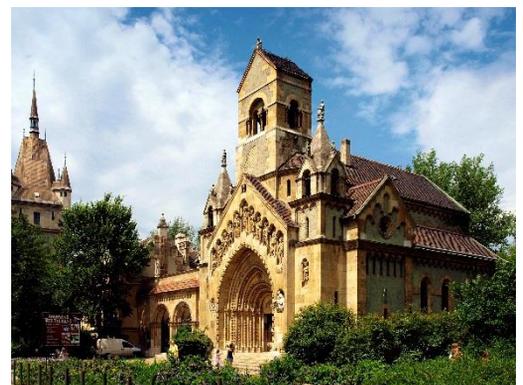

United in 1873, Budapest is renowned as the location of one of the most beautiful World Heritage sites. The warm hospitality of native people, excellent food and wine, reliable and frequent public transportation, vivid cultural life, rich museums, attract millions of visitors every year.

The 700-year old Matthias Church with its Gothic spire and multi-coloured tiled roof is where the nation's kings were crowned. Now it is site of organ and choir performances. Be sure to catch the sunset at Fisherman's Bastion, with its view onto the river, Chain Bridge, Parliament building and Pest across the horizon. Built at the turn of the century, the building of the Parliament quickly became a dominant sight and symbol of Budapest and the Danube panorama.

It is worth walking along the strictly straight Andrássy Avenue. Both sides of this boulevard are lined by eclectic 19th- and 20th-century mansions designed with artistic thoughtfulness. You can also find one of the most beautiful opera houses in the world here.

Sightseeing in Budapest

Parliament

Only Budapest can say of itself that it has Europe's largest Parliament and the continent's first underground railway. The architectural beauty with its monuments from neo-classic through baroque to eclectic art nouveau is prevalent in the city. Budapest is also famous over the globe for its artistic abundance of concerts, operas, recitals, galas, exhibitions and of course spa baths.

Castle District

The Castle District, with the Royal Palace, at the top of Castle Hill, is one of the most romantic pedestrian sections in Buda. A medieval little town with cozy streets, houses, beautiful monuments and gas lamps. The winding streets and narrow houses dating back to the Middle Ages are occasionally decorated by valuable Gothic window and door frames.

Bath complex

The city also boasts of its thermal baths. One of them is one of Europe's largest bath complexes, in fact there is no other capital city in the world with almost 100 thermal springs and 12 medicinal baths within its boundaries, where 19 million gallons of thermal water rise to the surface every day. The atmosphere of Roman bathing culture may be felt in its light, spacious pool halls, while Greek bathing culture is reflected in the tub baths, but traces of Nordic traditions may also be found in the heat chambers, saunas and dipping pools.
